Date: Friday-Saturday 17-18 April 2015
Time: Friday 17.4.2015, 13.00-17.00 and Saturday 18.4.2015, 9.00-12.00
Get together party on Friday evening

Place: Biomedicum (Lecture room 2), Haartmaninkatu 4, Helsinki, Finland

Fee: course is free for the post-graduate students

Course topics:
Evidence based orthodontics: an introduction
Orthodontics, occlusion and gnathology: evidence based vs. experience based views
Self-ligating brackets: basics, biology, biomechanics and business
External apical root resorption: orthodontic scars
Orthodontics and periodontics: on the close contact of 2 dental specialities
New treatment concepts: the re-invention of the wheel?

Dr Frank Weiland received his dental degree from the University of Amsterdam and his postgraduate orthodontic training in Germany and Austria. He earned dr.med.dent. title from the University of Bern (Switzerland) and a PhD from the University of Graz (Austria). He acted as President of the European Board of Orthodontics (2009-2012) and is an active member of the Angle Society of Europe. Among other awards he received Beni Solow Award for the best article published in the European Journal of Orthodontics in 2003 and Aldo Carano Memorial Lecture Award 2011 (Italian Academy of Orthodontics). He maintains a private practice in Deutschlandsberg (Austria) and is a part time associate professor at the Department of Orthodontics, Medical University Vienna.