

Ama Johal

Senior Clinical Lecturer/Hon. Consultant Orthodontist at Bart's and The London School of Medicine and Dentistry. Qualified in dentistry at Sheffield University in 1989 with honours and completed the Membership in Orthodontics (Royal College Surgeons England) and Masters Degree in Orthodontics at Bart's and The London School of Medicine and Dentistry, graduating with distinction in 1996. Clinical and research work has been rewarded with numerous National and International prizes. An invited lecturer, both nationally and internationally, with 25 publications in peer-reviewed International journals. Specialist interests include multidisciplinary care of patients with orthodontic-restorative needs and the management of patients with sleep-related breathing disorders.