

Dr Pertti Pirttiniemi

Dr Pirttiniemi, DDS, PhD is professor and chair of orthodontics and the dean of the Institute of Dentistry, University of Oulu, Finland. He has published over 70 international peer-reviewed publications in the field of orthodontics. His main interests of research are the diagnostics and treatment of asymmetric cases, randomized clinical trials, and experimental research on temporomandibular joint during altered loading.

Dr Pirttiniemi has been the member of the Task Force, World Federation of Orthodontics (WFO) in 2006-2009, Member of the Steering Committee of Network of Orthodontic Post-graduate Education (NPEOB) and the Teachers' Forum in Orthodontics in 2008. He has been the member of the Editorial board in the European Journal of Orthodontics since 2007. He received the Beni Solow award of the EOS in 2006. He has served as an invited lecturer at various international orthodontic meetings.